Membership Benefits

Membership packages may vary according to the level of individual membership. We reserve the right to change the benefits that apply to ABT membership at any time without prior notice.

Any external providers of a benefit included within your membership package will have absolute discretion in relation to the provision of services, and membership of the ABT does not guarantee that the external provider will be able to fulfil that section of the benefit. Where possible, ABT will attempt to offer an alternate benefit during a cease of service but this is not guaranteed. Services provided by a third party will be subject to the provider's own terms and conditions, and we will not accept any liability for loss or damage suffered as a result of a fault, error or omission in the provision of these services.

Please note, membership fees are non-refundable and non-transferable after the initial 14 day period and run for the full year regardless of cancellation or amendments.

Payment for our Services

The only fees that ABT charge are insurance administration fees and a £5.00 membership fee. In addition, we normally receive commission from the insurers or product providers, details of which are available on request. Any commission we receive will be paid from the insurance premium payable by you. We may also make charges for handling your insurance. We also draw your attention to the sections headed Cancellation of Insurances and Ending your Relationship with us.

Handling Money

Our financial arrangements with most insurance companies are on a 'Risk Transfer' basis. This means that we act as agents of the insurer in collecting premiums and handling refunds due to clients. In these circumstances such monies are deemed to be held by the insurer(s) with which your insurance is arranged. However, if Risk Transfer does not apply, such monies will be held by us in a Statutory Trust account set up in accordance with FCA rules. Interest earned on monies held in such a Statutory Trust account will be retained by us.

If you object to your money being held in a Statutory Trust account you should advise us immediately. Otherwise, your agreement to pay the insurance premium and/or membership together with your acceptance of these Terms of Business will constitute your informed consent to ABT holding your money in Statutory Trust account. For the purpose of some transactions, client and/or Insurers money may pass through other authorised intermediaries, i.e. Balens Limited, before it is received by the insurer.

Cancellation of Membership and Insurances

You should make any request for the cancellation of membership [including accreditation] or an insurance policy in writing and any relevant documents or certificates of insurance should be returned to us. You are entitled to cancel insurance policies within 14 days from the day after the day of conclusion of the contract. You will be charged for reasonable costs incurred in relation to the cover and services provided. Cancellation by you in other circumstances may result in enhanced, short-period charges as determined by the product provider and in some circumstances and there may be no refund of membership or insurance premiums paid. Accreditation [with or without membership] is a non-refundable process unless we are unable to insure the treatments being applied for at the point of application. We reserve the right to withdraw insurance for any accredited treatment at any time and with no notice you should also be aware that, in certain circumstances according to the terms of membership and insurance policies, insurers may be entitled to cancel your policy and allow a proportionate return of premium. If you allow your insurance to lapse we may not be able to reinstate the policy incorporating previous terms, conditions and costing.

Ending our Relationship

You may terminate our authority to act on your behalf with 14 days notice or as otherwise agreed without penalty. Notice of this termination must be given in writing and will take effect from the date of receipt. Termination is without prejudice to any transactions already initiated which will be completed according to these terms of business unless otherwise agreed in writing. You will be liable to pay for any transactions of adjustments effective prior to termination and we will be entitled to retain any and all membership fees or insurance brokerage payable in relation to insurance policies placed by us prior to the date of termination. In circumstances where we feel we cannot continue providing services to you, we will give you a minimum of 7 days notice.

Your Responsibilities

You are responsible for answering any questions or assumptions you may agree to honestly and to the best of your knowledge, providing the complete and accurate information which insurers require in connection with any proposal for insurance cover. This is particularly important before taking out a policy but also at renewal or if you make a midterm amendment to your policy. If you fail to disclose information, or misrepresent any fact which may influence the insurer's decision to accept the risk or the terms offered, this could invalidate the policy and mean that claims may not be paid in part or full. You must check all details on any proposal form or Statement of Facts and pay particular attention to any declaration you may be asked to sign. You must read all insurance documents issued to you and ensure that you are aware of the cover, limits and other terms that apply. Particular attention should be paid to any warranties and conditions as failure to comply with them could invalidate your policy. You must take note of the required procedures in the event of a claim, which will be stated in the policy documentation. Generally, Insurers require immediate notification of a claim or circumstances that might lead to a claim. You must inform us immediately of any changes in circumstances that may affect the services provided by us or the cover provided by your policy. If you are unsure about any matter, please contact us for guidance. Changes of Circumstances Notification - You must notify us in writing if there are any changes since originally completing your proposal form or other relevant documentation, as this could have a bearing on your cover. We undertake to notify this to your Insurers and supply appropriate documentation for the alteration.
